THE ARTIST

Jaime, AKA "WEAVERS", is an an artist with a passion for cannabis that shows through his functional art, fully-smokable blunt sculptures. After years working in engineering, Weavers decided to follow his dreams and become the first person to create a career out of blunt art.

He has created works of art for some of the most well known brands in cannabis. His acute attention to detail and creative mind are why he is able to create the most smokable sculptures with the perfect draw and even burn! Join Weavers on his quest to create the worlds largest fully smokable city of Los Ashes!
